

Commission Offered to Attorneys

Air Force commissions to law school graduates and practicing attorneys are now being offered under the Air Force Judge Advocate program, according to T/Sgt. Raymond Stauble, local recruiter.

Applications will be accepted through June 30, Sgt. Stauble said. Law school students may apply within 90 days of graduation. Maximum age limit for applicants is 39 years and 6 months.

Graduates accepted will be commissioned as first lieutenants and receive a starting salary of $450 monthly. Practicing attorneys with four years experience will be commissioned as captains and receive a monthly starting salary of $531.

Further details about the program may be secured from Sergeant Stauble at the Air Force Recruiting Office, 1616 Cabrillo Ave.

New Navy Program Now Open

A special Navy enlistment program designed for young men who have completed one or two years of college will provide the opportunity to complete college and fulfill military obligations at the same time, according to Chief Albert J. Meteney, local Navy recruiter.

Applicants with one year of college or 20 to 30 semester hours of college work may enlist in pay grade E-2. Two years of college or 50 to 60 semester hours entitle enlistees to pay grade E-3.

Selected enlistees are given the field of their choice and attend Class "A" technical schools for special training. Information about the program is available at the Navy Recruiting Station, 1520 Cravens Ave., or by calling FA 0-3141.

Elks Make Plans for Big Show

Robert Hultz has been appointed chairman of the "Elks-a-poppin'" committee to make plans for the Torrance Elks Lodge 1948 show. The show will be given at the Torrance High School auditorium Feb. 19, 20, and 27.

Dick De Mott, Floyd Schindler, and Frank Ellis were named to the talent and rehearsal committee. They will have the responsibility for selecting the cast members, organizing the rehearsal schedule and pulling the show together.

Otto Stiefel will head up the program advertising committee with Al Jackson serving as co-chairman. Harry Seeman and Fred Mishler will be in charge of program publicity and pictures.

Stage properties, scenery, curtains, and lights will be handled by stage manager Marvin Jones. Harry Knapp, John Robinson, and Tony Rembis will aid Jones.

The annual show provides the Elks Lodge with funds for the numerous charities which the lodge supports. Tickets are now available from Mishler, Chris Johnson, or Bob Ayala.

Unity Names Sunday Topic

The Rev. Emma M. Muffley of the Unity Church of Christianity will deliver a sermon on "Mightier than Circumstance" Sunday at 10:50 a.m. Services are held at 3855 W. 242nd St.

Lessons in Truth classes are held Tuesday mornings at Church House, 2254 Torrance Blvd. Further information concerning Unity activities and services may be obtained by telephoning 320-4871.
